Introduction	9
<hr/>
Section I – Economic Growth, Development, Technical Progress and Efficiency	11
<hr/>
Chapter 1: Theories on Economic Growth and Development	13
1.1 Classical Growth Theories	13
1.2 Solow-Swan Growth Model	16
1.3 Development Theories	17
<hr/>
Chapter 2: Technical Progress and Economic Growth	22
2.1 Harrod-Neutral (or Labor-Augmenting) Technical Progress	23
2.2 Hicks-Neutral (or TFP-Augmenting) Technical Progress	25
<hr/>
Chapter 3: Theories on Economic Efficiency	27
3.1 The Paretian System in a Two-Sector Model	28
3.2 Pareto Optimality – Components of Economic Efficiency; Welfare Theorems	32
3.2.1 Production Efficiency	32
3.2.2 Consumption Efficiency	33
3.2.3 Product-Mix Efficiency	34
3.2.4 The Fundamental Welfare Theorems	34
3.3 Discussions on the Pareto System	35
3.3.1 Analysis of the Welfare Theorems	36
3.3.2 Static versus Dynamic Efficiency	37
3.3.3 Optimal Allocation = Ethical Allocation	38
<hr/>
Chapter 4: Measurement of Technical Efficiency	40
4.1 Input and Output oriented Measurement of Technical Efficiency	40
4.2 Data Envelopment Analysis	42
4.2.1 Strengths of DEA	44
4.2.2 Limitations of DEA	45
4.3 DEA Model Correcting for Uncontrollable Nature of Input/Output	45
4.3.1 Ruggiero’s Multi-Stage Model	46
4.3.2 Muniz’s further Qualification	47
4.4 Stochastic Frontier	47
4.4.1 Strengths	48
4.4.2 Weaknesses	48
<hr/>
Chapter 5: Factors affecting Technical Efficiency	50
5.1 Technical Change Causing Pareto Inefficiency	50
5.2 Environmental Considerations in Calculating Technical Efficiency	51
5.3 Rent-seeking Implications on Efficiency	52
<hr/>

Chapter 6: Technical Progress and Disparities	55
6.1 India – Regional Growth Disparities	55
6.2 Growth Disparities explained using Economies of Scale	57
6.3 Growth Disparities explained using Technical Progress	59
6.4 Impact of Institutional History on Economic Performance	60
6.5 Discussions	63
<hr/>
Chapter 7: Economic History of India	65
7.1 Overview of the Country	65
7.2 India Growth Model	66
7.3 Indian Economy until the 1980s	67
7.4 Overall Situation of the Indian Economy in the 1990s	70
<hr/>
Chapter 8: Continuation of Historic Trends in Current Realities	76
8.1 Capital Market	76
8.2 Foreign Investments	77
8.3 Credit Policy – the Unstated Rules at Micro-Level	79
8.4 Inflation in India	80
8.5 Manifestations of Unemployment	82
8.5.1 A Conclusive theory of Unemployment	82
8.6 Conclusions	83
<hr/>
Chapter 9: Indian Industry Analysis	85
9.1 The Sugar Industry	85
9.1.1 Technical Progress Potential	86
9.1.2 Socio-Political Constraints	88
9.1.3 Recent Growth Measures	89
9.2 Textile Industry	90
9.2.1 Recent Growth Potential	91
9.3 BPO Industry	94
9.4 Auto Ancillaries	95
9.5 Biotechnology Industry	96
9.6 Discussion	97
<hr/>
Chapter 10: Key Discussions	100
10.1 Institutional Impact on Progress	100
10.2 Competition and its Impact on Efficiency	101
10.3 Segmented Labor (dual) Market and Endogenous Preferences	102
<hr/>
Section II – Linkages between the Informal Sector and Industrial Performance	103
<hr/>
Chapter 11: Theories on the Informal Sector	105
11.1 Categorizing the Informal Sector	105
11.2 Modeling the Informal Sector	106
<hr/>
Chapter 12: The Indian Informal Sector	110
<hr/>

Chapter 13: Informal Sector in the Manufacturing Industry in India	114
13.1 A Statistical Outlook on the Informal Manufacturing Sector	114
13.2 Formal versus Informal Sectors in Manufacturing	116

Chapter 14: Informal Sector and its Relevance for Progress	118
14.1 Informal Sector and Some of its Problems in India	119
14.1.1 Informal Worker and his Surroundings	120
14.1.2 The Financial Burden on the Informal Worker	120
14.1.3 The Stagnant Entrepreneur	121

Chapter 15: Nurturing the Informal Sector	122
---	-----

Chapter 16: Prognosis and Policy Recommendations	124
