
Contents

FOREWORD	13
1. WHAT FOR BUSINESS ETHICS?	19
Moral philosophy and business ethics	21
Why business ethics should be a necessary endeavour	24
The 'legalist' challenge to business ethics	31
Common-sense and mass media scandals	36
The positivistic challenge to business ethics	40
The ideological challenges to business ethics	43
▪ The classical challenges	44
▪ The contemporary challenges	48
The main topics of business ethics	51
References	55
2. COMPETITION AND COOPERATION	57
Narrow-minded egoism	58
Social dilemmas and Theory of Games	62
▪ The Prisoner's Dilemma	62
▪ The Peasant's Dilemma	65
▪ Tit for Tat	67
Enlightened self-interest	70
The cooperative nature of business	77
▪ Duties to competitors	80
▪ Reason and goodwill	81
References	84

3. MORAL NORMS AND VALUES	85
What is a norm?	86
Norms and freedom	87
The normative statements	89
The structure of norms	90
Moral norms and religious commandments	91
Moral norms and legal regulations	92
Moral norms and traditional customs	96
Moral norms and technical instructions	97
Moral principles	100
The concept of value	102
Subjectivism	103
Objectivism	105
Relativism	107
Universalism	109
Moral conscience	111
Consistency and ethics	116
Objections to ethical relativism	118
References	121
4. MORALITY AND SELF-INTEREST	123
Ethics of Virtue	125
▪ The search for well-being	126
▪ Virtue as excellence; two types of virtue	127
▪ Intrinsic and instrumental goods	130
▪ Virtue theory and business ethics	131
▪ The limits of virtue theory	136
Utilitarianism	138
▪ Utilitarian theory	138
▪ Hedonistic and ideal utilitarianism	141
▪ Rule and act utilitarianism	142
▪ Utilitarian applications in business	143

Ethics of Duty	148
▪ Moral reasoning	150
▪ The principle of universality	151
▪ The principle of respect	153
▪ The principle of autonomy	153
▪ Rights and fairness	155
▪ The morality of the marketplace	156
Conclusions	159
References	162
5. BUSINESS AND CUSTOMERS	165
Customers: kings or victims?	166
▪ Consumer demands with moral costs	168
▪ The commercial expense of consumer protection	172
Uncontroversial protections	174
Ethical issues in advertising	175
▪ Criticism of advertising	176
▪ Ethical problems in advertising	180
Consumer safety and product liability	183
What about us?	185
▪ Business and long-term considerations	187
▪ The company and the consumer	189
The wind of change	190
References	191
6. BUSINESS AND EMPLOYEES	193
Responsibilities of employers	195
▪ The Romanian workforce market: past and present	196
▪ Paper contracts and living people	200
▪ Respect for the individual	202
▪ Ethical dilemmas and moral responsibilities of employers	205

Responsibilities of employees	207
▪ Loyalty and morality	208
▪ Whistle-blowing	209
Fairness between employees	211
▪ Affirmative action and positive discrimination	213
▪ A harassment-free workplace	218
Employees and quality	220
References	221
7. BUSINESS AND SHAREHOLDERS	223
The meaning of shareholding	225
Responsibilities of shareholders	228
▪ Insider dealing	228
▪ Corporate loyalty and hostile take-overs	230
▪ Small versus institutional shareholders	235
Responsibilities of companies to shareholders	237
▪ Management buy-outs	240
Ethical investment	242
Shareholding as a desirable form of ownership	244
References	246
CONCLUSION	247
BIBLIOGRAPHY	255